The Daily Quote

"The nation’s governors are pressing Congress for ‘swift’ action to approve new funding to fight the Zika virus. ‘As Congress returns from recess... the nation’s governors urge the Administration and Congress to work together to reach agreement on the appropriate funding levels needed to prepare for and combat the Zika virus,’ the National Governors Association (NGA) said in a statement... Public health experts have been warning that the virus will ramp up in the continental United States as the weather gets warmer... Republican lawmakers, particularly in the House, have resisted approving emergency funding requested by the White House."
